How to be a Ladybird (in association with the Royal Entomological Society)

Laura Knowles

Shrink to the size of a garden bug and enter the world of ladybirds in this first graphic novel

THE PITCH

- GRAPHIC NOVELS ARE A POPULAR FORMAT FOR KIDS: 2 in 5 kids read comics or graphic novels once a month or more (National Literacy Trust, 2022)
- MADE IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE ROYAL ENTOMOLOGICAL SOCIETY: As a leading authority on insects, our imprimatur will inspire confidence in book buyers looking for educational content
- INCLUDES BUG HUNTER TIPS: Young bug enthusiasts can learn where to spot ladybirds, when in the year they appear, and behaviours to look out for
- ENVIRONMENTAL NECESSITY: The UK's flying insects have declined by 60% in 20 years and interest in supporting invertebrates is growing (National History Museum, May 2022)
- ENGAGING STORY: The book follows a newly hatched larva, Dotty, as she learns how to navigate life as a ladybird

THE BOOK

Follow a newly hatched ladybird as she learns the ins and outs of ladybirdhood, and meet plenty of fascinating bug characters along the way, in this first graphic novel.

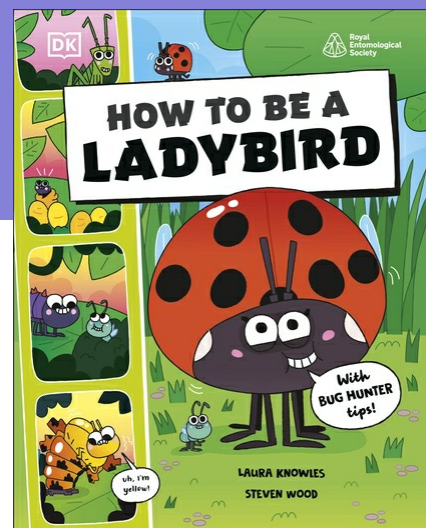

Our tale begins with a cluster of tiny eggs resting peacefully on a leaf – but life for a ladybird larva is far from peaceful. There are dastardly harlequins to contend with and giant predators in the form of birds. Not to mention the confusing fact that our leading larva doesn't look anything like a ladybird at all! With transformations to look forward to – including gaining a pair of wings – and plenty of friendly bugs to meet, our heroine will soon learn that life in the garden isn't all bad.

Narrated by a wise old grasshopper, offering tips and tricks on how to be a ladybird, and featuring laugh-out-loud moments, this tale of garden life is a perfect introduction to ladybirds for bug-obsessed little ones. Made in collaboration with the Royal Entomological Society, facts and supporting information are blended seamlessly into the action, while hilarious illustrations from Steven Wood will engage even the most reluctant reader.

THE AUTHOR

Laura Knowles is the author of several children's books, including It Starts with a Seed, which won the 2017 Margaret Mallett Award for Children's Non-fiction.
