Rocky Kanaka is known the world over as a dog rescue advocate. His millions of fans follow along each week as Rocky visits shelters and finds dogs in need. He often finds the most hopeless cases—dogs that have been abandoned because they're sick or their owners can no longer care for them, or they've never had a home and have lived on the street—and helps them find their forever homes. Through patience, kindness, and love, Rocky helps dogs trust and love again, even if it's just for the short time Rocky visits with them in the shelter.

Sitting with Dogs is a collection of stories about nine rescue dogs that each got off to a rough start, but found their way into Rocky's arms. From the story of Flip, Rocky's first rescue and the inspiration for Rocky dedicating his life to saving lost and abandoned dogs, to Macy, who was so emaciated when she arrived at the shelter that no one thought she would survive, Rocky's stories will tug at your heart and bring a smile to your face. And they might even inspire you to give a little of your own time and attention to a dog that just needs a hug and a treat.

How to be a Dragonfly (in association with the Royal Entomological Society)

Laura Knowles

Shrink to the size of a bug and enter the world of dragonflies in this graphic novel

THE PITCH

- GRAPHIC NOVELS ARE A POPULAR FORMAT FOR KIDS: 2 in 5 children read comics or graphic novels once a month or more (National Literacy Trust, 2022)
- MADE IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE ROYAL ENTOMOLOGICAL SOCIETY: As a leading authority on insects with international reach, our imprimatur will inspire confidence in book buyers
- ENGAGING STORY: The book follows a newly hatched larva, Chase, as he learns how to navigate life as a dragonfly
- INCLUDES BUG HUNTER TIPS: Young bug enthusiasts will love learning where to spot dragonflies, when in the year they appear, and behaviours to look out for

THE BOOK

Follow a newly hatched dragonfly as he learns to navigate pond life, and meet plenty of fascinating bug characters along the way, in this first graphic novel.

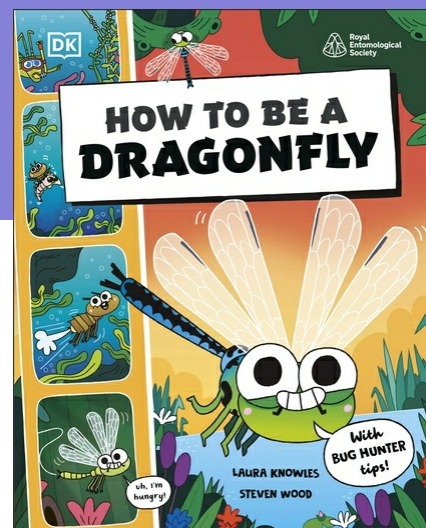

Chase thinks he'll stay a nymph forever. And it's not a bad life, in the pond he calls home. He's mastered the art of jet propulsion, how many insects can say that? But still, it would be quite fun to be one of those big, shining blue and green dragonflies flying overhead, chasing one another and making daring escapes from birds. Then one day, Chase feels a change. He has begun his metamorphosis into an adult dragonfly, which means leaving the water for the first time. Beyond the still surface, there's a world of adventure waiting.

Narrated by a wise old grasshopper, offering tips and tricks on how to be a dragonfly, and featuring laugh-out-loud moments, this tale of pond life is a perfect introduction to dragonflies for bug-obsessed little ones. Made in collaboration with the Royal Entomological Society, facts and supporting information are blended seamlessly into the action, while hilarious illustrations from Steven Wood will engage even the most reluctant reader.

THE AUTHOR

Laura Knowles is the author of several children's books, including It Starts with a Seed, which won the 2017 Margaret Mallett Award for Children's Non-fiction.
