Seasonal Italian Recipes for Those You Love

Jessi & Alessio Pasini

Dai, amore! Savor the flavors of Italy in this love letter to seasonal cooking from Jessi and Alessio Pasini.

THE PITCH

- 100+ RECIPES WITH HUMOR: From Spezzatino con Patate to Frico Friulano, these recipes are authentic and—most important—fun to learn about from hilarious American–Italian couple Jessi & Alessio.
- FUNNY & RELATABLE: Jessi & Alessio have a devoted fan base from sharing their experiences—including IVF—while staying light-hearted. Followers care about their story and feel like they're friends.
- HUGE PLATFORM: Jessi & Alessio have a combined following of 4.23M. Their commentary on American–Italian food and finding Italian ingredients in US stores has fans begging for a cookbook.
- GROWING, ACTIVE AUDIENCE: Since 2021, their audience has grown exponentially, with more than 737k subscribers and videos receiving more than 10m views. Recently, their subscriber count has increased by more than 14k.

THE BOOK

You may think you know what a real Italian meal looks like, but would it pass Alessio's approval? Join the Pasinis on a culinary adventure as they guide you toward the best ingredients and recipes for the perfect Italian dining experience.

Jessi and Alessio bring their endearing intersection of cultures into your kitchen with their debut cookbook. You'll learn:

- How to identify the most authentic Italian ingredients, sauces, products, and more in American grocery stores
- The best Italian cooking tricks (never break the pasta)
- How to taste for the best olive oil
- How to prepare the most delicious Italian foods, from appetizers to mains, homemade pasta, pizzas, desserts, and more

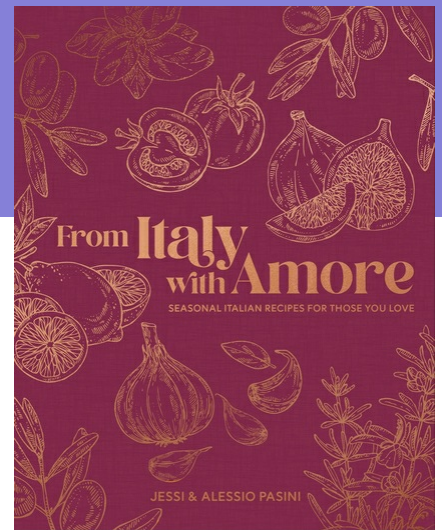

Along the way, you'll be charmed by Jessi and Alessio's funny, tender tales of travel, family, cultural clashes, and the many meals that shape their life together. Filled with approachable recipes for family-friendly Italian cuisine and a deep reverence for the beauty of the most authentic ingredients, this cookbook is a love letter to Italian food and the people you gather around the table. Buon appetito!

Reimagined Plant-Based Indian Recipes

Sheil Shukla

A culinary journey from India, through Asia, and to America, featuring creative curries, sauces, rice dishes, and more, from the author of James Beard Award–nominated Plant-Based India

THE PITCH

- GROWING PLATFORM: Since he started to post book-related content, Sheil's Instagram following rose from 50K to over 90K. He plans to start a newsletter and expand across platforms.
- 90+ PLANT-BASED ASIAN FUSION RECIPES: Sheil's creative recipes, like Beet Korma, French Lentils with Rosemary Tadka, and Sushi Rice Khichadi, are simple to make but full of flavor.
- POPULAR TOPIC: Plant-based eating is on the rise, with over 6 percent of the global population identifying as vegan.
- PRAISEWORTHY AUTHOR: Sheil's first book, Plant-Based India, was a James Beard Award nominee and a New York Times best cookbook of 2022.
- CONNECTED AUTHOR: Sheil's high-profile friends like @thekoreanvegan, @rainbowplantlife, and @theguthealthmd, helped promote his first book and will support this one too.

THE BOOK

In Sheil Shukla's first cookbook, Plant Based India, he presented the plant-based Indian recipes of his Gujarati heritage. In Kari, he explores what a "curry" actually is, with reimagined Indian dishes infused with flavors and techniques from Asia to America and beyond.

Kari's plant-based recipes redefine Indian cuisine as we know it, with dishes that incorporate Thai, Korean, Japanese, and even Italian influences and use ingredients easily found in kitchens throughout the United States. The creative curries make storebought simmer sauces an afterthought.

Each creative sauce is accompanied by two additional recipe variations to make the most of your time in the kitchen; make the Makhani Sauce, then use it in the Japanese-inspired Tofu Katsu Makhani, and save any leftover sauce to make Makhani Nachos. The stews and grains range from classics like Fluffy Basmati Rice to unique dishes like French Lentils with Lemon and Rosemary Tadka. This book also features breads, drinks, and desserts to accompany the curries and create a complete meal. These are Indian recipes that you've never seen before, in this groundbreaking exploration of what it means to bring cultural traditions together through food.

THE AUTHOR

Sheil Shukla is a recipe developer, content creator, food photographer, and a Northwestern Medicine board certified internal medicine physician. His culinary creations have garnered the support of over 91,000 followers on Instagram (and his debut cookbook, Plant-Based India was named one of the New York Times best cookbooks of 2022 and was nominated for a James Beard Award. He lives in the Chicagoland suburbs with his wife Rachel and their children Shrey, Radhi, and Reva.

A Year of Fermentation

A Seasonal Guide to the Art & Science of Fermentation

Sam Cooper

Seasonal fermentation recipes to enjoy nature's bounty year round

THE PITCH

- SEASONAL, INGREDIENT-LED APPROACH: Recipes and techniques follow what ingredients are in season when, realigning the modern world with the ancient art form of fermentation and nature's rhythms
- SEARCH GROWTH: There is ever-growing interest in fermentation. Google Trends predicts "ferment" will reach an all-time high in 2025
- EXPERT-LED: Professional chef, Sam Cooper, has amassed close to 600k Instagram followers of his fermenting and gardening content
- GENRE CROSS-OVER: Sunday Times bestseller The Self-Sufficiency Garden proves there's an audience of gardeners and cooks. This book appeals to foodies, growers, and foragers

THE BOOK

"A beautiful, essential book, where – as ever, only more so – Sam shares his delicious, original takes on fermenting" – Mark Diacono

A Year of Fermentation is a comprehensive seasonal guide that explores the fascinating world of fermentation through the year.

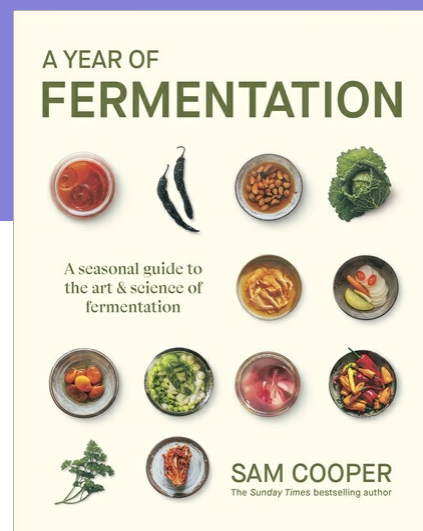

This book aims to bridge the gap between foraging, growing, and cooking, providing what's-in-season calendars and recipes for ferments to unlock incredible flavours, enhance nutrition, and foster a deeper connection with food and nature all year round.

Broadly speaking, we think of the year as four seasons. In finer detail, we break it down into twelve months. In the world of food, we can see the year as a shifting, overlapping mass of microseasons, each offering its own set of delicious ingredients. In this book, we follow ingredients (and the relevant fermentation techniques) through these microseasons to enjoy the best flavour possible and align with nature's rhythms.

With step-by-step instructions, illustration, and photography, this deep dive into the calendar year of an expert fermenter teaches you how to harness the best of each season, ensuring that your cupboards are stocked all year round along with recipes for your everyday cooking.

THE AUTHOR

Sam Cooper is a Sunday Times bestselling author and chef-turned-gardener now working full-time on a farm on the West Wales coast. His fascination with homegrown produce has grown along with his Instagram – @chef.sam.black has more than half a million followers – where he posts delicious ferment recipes using seasonal ingredients. Sam wrote the In the Kitchen chapter of The Self-Sufficiency Garden (March 2024), The Fermentation Kitchen (November 2024), and co-wrote How to Grow Food (March 2026). He is also a photographer and illustrator.

Bake with Brooki

Brooke Bellamy

Step into the kitchen with wildly popular baker Brooke Bellamy, owner of Brooki Bakehouse, and discover how to create the most delectable sweet treats for every craving and occasion

THE PITCH

- ICONIC BAKERY: Brooki Bakehouse only opened in May 2022, yet in less than two years it has gained global recognition and a cult following – founder Brooke and her team sell out almost every day, people start queuing at 5am, and her mouth-watering cookies are shipped across the country and overseas in their iconic powder-pink boxes
- COMMITTED FANDOM: Over 3 million followers tune into Brooki's "day-in-the-life" videos for a fascinating peek into the world of a talented and hard-working bakery owner
- CULT FOLLOWING: Brooki sells over a thousand cookies in-store each day and now also ships them across AUS, NZ, USA, and Canada
- GORGEOUS DESIGN: Complete with colour photography for every recipe, super-stylish design, and a ribbon, the beautiful and aspirational package for this book will make it an irresistible kitchen and coffee table purchase
- CRITICAL ACCLAIM: Australian Book Industry Awards - Illustrated Book of the Year

THE BOOK

Since growing up baking with her mum in Tasmania, Brooke's journey to becoming a bakery owner has spanned continents: from patisserie classes in Paris and visiting Swiss chocolate factories, to hunting down the ultimate cookies in New York City and seeking out cardamom buns in snowy Copenhagen. Now, she inspires millions of followers with her day-in-the-life videos from her Brisbane bakery, selling out daily to the queues of fans waiting in line for their Brooki fix.

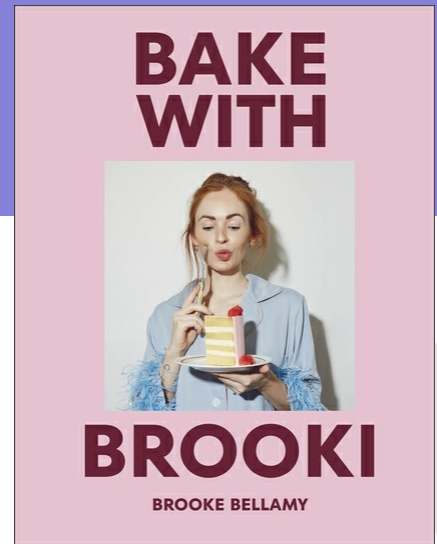

Brooke's insatiable sweet tooth and passion for creating the very best bakes have driven her through it all, to here: her first cookbook.

Bake with Brooki has everything – those chunky cookies that have gained a cult following (of course!) plus brownies, cupcakes, traybakes, macarons, cheesecakes, layer cakes and more. They're all beautifully photographed and come with Brooke's top tips for success every time, no matter your skill level.

These are the tried-and-true recipes behind the bakes that have made Brooki Bakehouse famous, plus the brand-new personal favourites that Brooke loves to make at home for friends and family (or a late-night sweet moment). You'll find cherry-topped Red Velvet Cupcakes, a deliciously rich and surprisingly easy Biscoff Cheesecake and Sticky Date Puddings to wow your guests.

THE AUTHOR

- INDUSTRY EXPERT: Rupert Keys runs Task Academy training foundation that makes landscape gardening accessible to the general public
- GROWTH IN DIY: The European DIY home improvement market is forecast to grow 2024-28 by 4% a year, an increase of $48 billion (Source: Technavio)
- GLOBAL PASTIME: The global landscaping services market is valued at $296 billion and will grow 6% annually until 2030, with easy accessibility of hi-tech landscaping products a key driver of this growth (Source: Grand View Research)

Build the garden of your dreams for a fraction of the cost

Stop looking out at your garden space and imagining how it could be improved if only you could afford a landscape designer. With this book as your guide you'll have the confidence to roll up your sleeves, get stuck in yourself, and save money in the process.

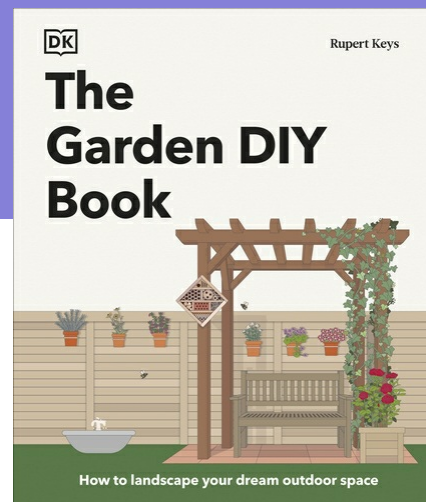

You might have extensive plans to remodel your garden landscape with a new seating area, paths, and pergola, or may simply want to learn how to complete tasks such as fixing wire supports for climbers or drilling drainage holes in upcycled containers. Whatever the job, this book has all the expert practical advice you need.

Written by one of the industry's top landscaping tutors and featuring clear, step-by-step photography and illustrations, the book covers all the latest techniques, materials, and styles – from building decking with eco-friendly composites, to laying porcelain paving, or fitting a sleek, solar-powered water rill.

Whether it's a compost bay made from timber offcuts, or a sunken outdoor dining space surrounded by raised planting, this book will give you the skills and confidence to turn your hand to any DIY project in the garden.

RHS Plants for Pollinators

Boost Garden Biodiversity to Make a Pollinator-Friendly Haven

The Royal Horticultural Society

Transform your garden into a haven for pollinators

THE PITCH

- COMPREHENSIVE GUIDE: Includes expert information on 300 plants and 150 pollinators, with practical tips on how to make your garden a welcoming habitat for them
- RHS APPROACH: The RHS Plants for Pollinators list covers more than 500 genera and species, and is at the heart of the RHS's environmental campaign
- FOOD-CHAIN ROLE: About a third of our food relies on pollinators, which form an intrinsic part of the web of wildlife (The Wildlife Trusts)
- URBAN POLLINATORS: Residential gardens worldwide cover 16–36% of urban land, so the role urban gardens play in offering pollinator-friendly planting is vital (The RHS)

THE BOOK

A seasonal plant guide to boost your biodiversity and make your garden a pollinator-friendly haven.

Pollinator populations – whether bees, hoverflies, butterflies, or moths – are declining globally and there's an urgent need to reverse the decline. That's where gardens come in.

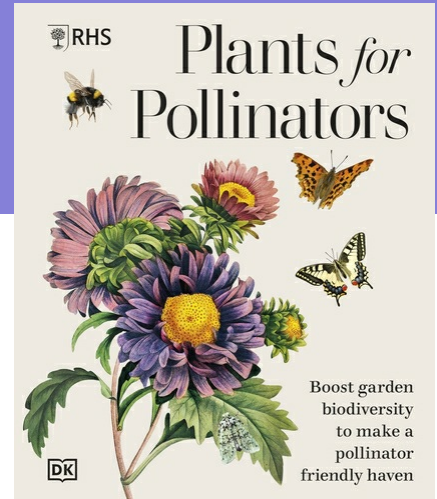

Any outside space can help sustain and increase wildlife, but how can your garden help? Can you choose plants that boost every bit of biodiversity? Which are the very best plants for pollinators?

This fully illustrated, curated, seasonal guide tells you which plants to grow to help bring your garden to life. From garden favourites to wildflowers, more than 150 plants are profiled. Each profile includes the plant's attraction for wildlife, advice on how to care for them, and the best ways to manage growth for pollinators in particular and wildlife more generally.

The book also includes a visual guide to the most common pollinators that may visit your garden, including many less familiar species, so that you can spot new visitors and track the increase in biodiversity as you plant for pollinators.

From Ancient Empires to Forgotten Cultures

A unique map-led history of the world's most important civilizations

THE PITCH

- ESSENTIAL HISTORY: Tells the story of the cultures, societies, and civilizations that came before us – their rise and fall, their beliefs and achievements, and their impact on the modern world
- STORYTELLING MAPS: Specially commissioned maps combine with stunning contemporary examples and important cultural and scientific artefacts
- EXPERT PANEL: Written and authenticated by a panel of specialist historians
- MARKET-LEADING FORMULA: In the style of the Map By Map series, which has sold more than 500k+ copies worldwide

THE BOOK

Witness the rise and fall of ancient empires and forgotten cultures, and their epic stories with this unique map-led history.

From Mesopotamia's thriving trade hubs to the spectacular cities of the Inca, such as Machu Picchu, Civilizations Map By Map charts the rise and fall of more than 90 pioneering early societies. A combination of specially commissioned story-telling maps and contemporary examples offer a window into the pivotal events, key innovations, cultural cornerstones, and enduring legacies of these ancient worlds.

Travel through 6,000 years of history – from the first recorded war between Elam and Sumer, through Alexander the Great's conquests across three continents, to the rapid expansion of the Aztec Empire. Discover the birth of writing, the calendar, coinage, and urban planning, along with the spread of early scientific knowledge, and religious, philosophical, and political ideas. Marvel at colossal Olmec stone heads, exquisite Byzantine mosaics and Song dynasty silk, the spectacular Great Mosque of Djenné in Mali, and many more artistic and architectural triumphs.

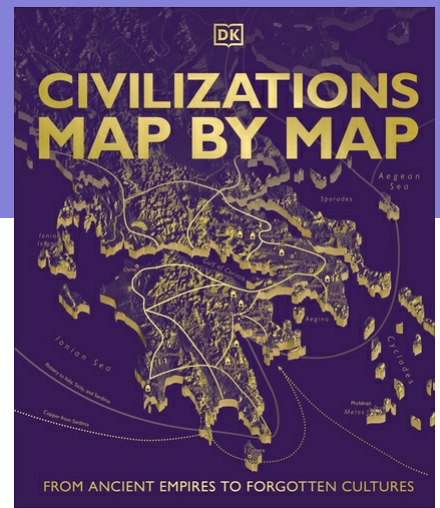

Written and authenticated by a panel of expert historians, Civilizations Map By Map uncovers the incredible stories of our shared past, one map at a time.

Psych.

The Story of Psychology

The extraordinary story of psychology – from ancient thinkers to the pioneering minds of modern science

THE PITCH

- FOOD FOR THOUGHT: A reader-friendly visual history of a popular and fascinating subject – from the insights of ancient philosophers to the cutting-edge ideas of Paul Bloom and Michael Tomasello
- INSIGHTFUL ANALYSIS: Includes more than 100 illustrations, diagrams, and artworks that explain complex concepts clearly and simply
- BOLDY VISUAL: The first title in a new flagship series with a striking contemporary design, stunning jacket concept, and boldly coloured page edges
- POPULAR SUBJECT: DK's other psychology titles have sold brilliantly around the world: The Psychology Book (1.8m+ copies); How Psychology Works (400k+ copies); Simply Psychology (65k+ copies)

THE BOOK

Take a fascinating trip through more than 2,500 years of groundbreaking ideas and discoveries that have shaped how we understand the human mind.

Psych. takes you on a journey through the rich and fascinating history of psychology. From the early philosophical musings of Aristotle and Plato on the human mind to the game-changing theories of Freud, Jung, and Skinner, Psych. breaks down the major concepts and developments that have defined the field. With stunning visuals and an engaging narrative, it explores the minds behind the key milestones that made psychology what it is today.

Packed with eye-catching photography, bold graphics, and thought-provoking quotes, Psych. makes complex ideas in understanding, memory, behaviour, and emotion easy to grasp. It also sheds light on the debates and breakthroughs – from psychoanalysis to cognitive science and positive psychology – that have fuelled the rise of psychology to one of the most vital sciences of our time.

In a world increasingly curious about the human mind, this an essential and timely reflection on the history of psychology and its potential impact on the future of humanity.

Amigurumi Animals

Over 50 Adorable, Low-sew Plushies to Crochet

Anabelle McElhaney

Over 50 amigurumi animal patterns that anyone can make

THE PITCH

- LEADING CRAFT TREND: Amigurumi books rank as top sellers in the Arts & Crafts category, alongside colouring and granny square titles
- ENGAGED AUDIENCE: Crochet plushies are popular with young adult crafters – #amigurumi has over 2 million TikTok tags
- OVER 50 PATTERNS: This book offers more than double the patterns than most competitor titles
- STAR AUTHOR: With over 1.2 million followers across social media, 213k+ Etsy pattern sales, and over 7 million YouTube views, Anabelle McElhaney is one of the world's leading amigurumi designers

THE BOOK

Making your own cuddly toys has never been easier

With just a crochet hook, a ball of yarn, and some stuffing, you can bring an amigurumi friend to life in a single afternoon. Featuring over 50 cute and cuddly crochet creatures designed by Anabelle McElhaney – better known to her followers as Crochet Grove – Anabelle shares some of her most sought-after designs, along with new and exclusive patterns to add to the collection.

From woodland creatures to safari animals, and cute amigurumi accessories to personalize your creations, Anabelle's low-sew approach allows crafters of all abilities to be able to assemble each plushie quickly and easily, without any specialist sewing skills required. Each pattern features easy-to-follow, step-by-step images showing the design come to life, while the introductory 'how-to' chapter guides first-time crocheters through all the essential stitches they'll want to know for their plushie creations.

THE AUTHOR

Anabelle McElhaney, a.k.a. Crochet Grove, is a crochet designer from Washington State, USA. She has been crocheting for over 10 years and designing patterns since 2021. Anabelle specializes in amigurumi that are easy to follow, full of charm, and designed to bring joy to every maker's hook. Her fun and approachable style has led to collaborations with Joann and Premier Yarns, and her work has been featured in Simply Crochet magazine. She has thrived as an independent designer across platforms like Instagram, Etsy, Ravelry, TikTok, Facebook, and YouTube, where her charming characters continue to inspire new and seasoned crocheters around the world.

The Story of the City

A Human Experiment 9,000 Years in the Making

A fascinating adventure through the history of cities, from their origins to their future

THE PITCH

- CURRICULUM-FRIENDLY FUN: Explore history and geography with exciting stories and fascinating facts perfect for school projects
- CITIES ARE EVERYWHERE: According to the World Bank, over 4 billion people live in cities, so understanding their past and future is more important than ever
- CHRONOLOGICAL APPROACH: The book follows the journey of city growth from the origins of Uruk, the first city, to modern megacities such as Tokyo, and on to the future of urban planning
- MEET THE VISIONARIES: Stories feature inspirational figures who revolutionised urban life, including Joseph Bazalgette, who built London's sewers, and Elisha Otis, inventor of the elevator

THE BOOK

Have you ever looked at the towers, houses, bridges and parks around you, and wondered how they got there? The answer is in the greatest experiment in human history: the city.

In The Story of the City, urban historian Leo Hollis takes readers on a captivating journey through the history of cities, from the first settlements in ancient Mesopotamia to the megacities of today. This isn't just a story about concrete and steel, but about the people who dreamed, built, and shaped the places that more than half of the people on Earth call home.

Learn about the inventor of the elevator, the urban planner who reformed Paris, the construction workers who built the Empire State Building, and other extraordinary characters who have left an indelible mark on our urban landscape. Discover how innovations like the safety elevator, the sewer, and the car reshaped city living, while also creating challenges for the future.

THE AUTHOR

Leo Hollis is an urban historian, writer, and broadcaster. He is the author of The Phoenix: The Men Who Made Modern London and the international bestseller, Cities Are Good For You. Leo is a regular contributor to the London Review of Books and his work has been featured in The Guardian, The Economist, and The Financial Times. He lives in London and is a frequent speaker at literary festivals and conferences worldwide.

Nature's Greatest Scientists

Steve Mould

Join bestselling author Steve Mould to learn how animals and plants do the seemingly impossible using science

THE PITCH

- POPULAR AUTHOR: Bestselling author Steve Mould is a successful YouTuber with 3.4 million subscribers
- UNIQUE APPROACH: This book gives examples of how humans have copied nature to improve our own technology, like bullet train noses that were modelled on kingfisher beaks
- PACKED WITH INFORMATION: Featuring 25 key organisms and their amazing adaptations, and a further 50 examples of plant and animal scientists
- PAPERBACK REISSUE: This book is a reissue of DK's Wild Scientists (2020), in a new appealing format at a competitive price with a new cover design and title

THE BOOK

Uncover nature's greatest scientists, engineers, and mathematicians in this fascinating look at animals and plants and their amazing scientific adaptations.

Join bestselling author Steve Mould to meet amazing engineers, such as the spiders who build immense webs from different kinds of silk; funky physicists, like the bats that can see with sound; and surprising chemists, such as the corpse flower that smells like smelly socks to attract insects to pollinate it! The science behind each genius adaptation is explained clearly in Steve Mould's trademark humorous style and you'll be amazed by nature's solutions to some of the world's trickiest problems. Additional biomimicry pages even show where we've copied nature to improve our own science and engineering, such as the streamlined nose of bullet trains, modelled on the shape of a kingfisher's beak.

Wild Scientists is a brilliant introduction to some of nature's cleverest animals and plants. Perfect for children aged 7–9, it is filled with intriguing illustrations and spectacular photographs of the amazing, obscure, and downright bizarre. You'll never look at nature the same way again!

Saints' Lives

The Miraculous, Inspiring, and Astonishing Stories of the Saints

Tina Beattie

A collection of extraordinary stories from the lives of the saints for children aged 9+

THE PITCH

- GROWING RELIGIOUS MARKET: Children's religious books were worth £1.5m in 2024, and the market has grown by 3% year to date (Bookscan; Aug, 2025)
- THRILLING TALES: The miracles of more than 20 saints are retold, including beloved saints, such as St George and St Christopher, as well as some lesser-known saints
- CORE REFERENCE: A reference section explains the celebration of saints, patron saints, and more, and includes a calendar of feast days
- STUNNING ILLUSTRATIONS: Beautiful illustrations from award-winning illustrator Alicia Rutigliano give the stories a timeless charm

THE BOOK

Step into the incredible lives of the saints with this absolutely stunning collection of tales, written by broadcaster and Professor of Catholic Studies, Tina Beattie.

Favourite stories, such as St Jerome nursing a lion and St Brigid's miraculously expanding cloak, sit alongside those which are lesser-known, such as when St Kevin had to stay still while a blackbird nested in his hand or when St Margaret was swallowed by a dragon. All are filled with bravery, kindness, and resilience, and the beautiful illustrations by artist Alicia Rutigliano bring the saints to life.

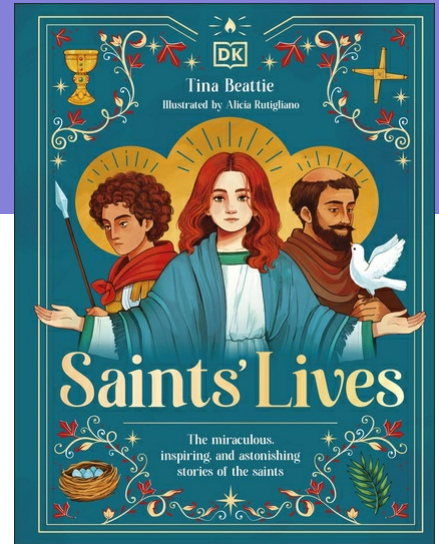

More than 25 saints are featured, each with both a fact-filled profile and the story of one of their miracles. Find out which saint has a firework named after her, which saint gave us Santa Claus, and which saint may have created the Loch Ness Monster. A reference section includes information on patron saints, relics, and miracles, as well as a calendar of feast days for every day of the year.

Whether for a special occasion, such as confirmation, or simply for a child who enjoys stories filled with adventure, Saints' Lives is the perfect gift.

THE AUTHOR

Tina Beattie is an independent researcher, writer, and broadcaster. Previously the Professor of Catholic Studies at the University of Roehampton, she has written both on theology as well as works of fiction. She is a contributor to several publications, including The Guardian, and has appeared on Sky News and the BBC.

Alicia Rutigliano is an illustrator from Perth, Australia, with a background in illustration, animation, and game design from Curtin University. Inspired by vintage illustration styles and 70's shoujo manga, Alicia creates artwork for all ages.

A Kids Book About Mentors

Josh Shipp

A kid's guide to the power of mentorship, featuring advice from a foster kid turned motivational speaker.

THE PITCH

- CONVERSATION STARTER: An accessible, informative and uplifting conversation about mentorship, written to empower the next generation.
- AUTHOR PROMINENCE: Josh Shipp is a respected voice in youth empowerment, bringing credibility and relatability.
- APPROACHABLE & CHILD-FRIENDLY: Type-driven design allows kids freedom to imagine themselves in the pages with friendly, approachable, and kid-appropriate tone throughout.
- DIVERSE & INCLUSIVE STORYTELLING: A Kids Co. was born with a mission to empower a generation of kids through diverse storytelling. The series features an incredible group of authors who are experts or have first-hand experience of the topic.

THE BOOK

Mentors are life-changers. They guide us, inspire us, and help us grow into the best versions of ourselves. But how do you find one? Should you have just one? A Kids Book About Mentors breaks down these big questions in a way that's easy to understand. Written by Josh Shipp, a former at-risk foster kid turned best-selling author and youth advocate, this book empowers kids to see the value of having mentors in every part of their life—whether for hobbies, skills, mental health, or simply navigating the ups and downs of growing up.

Josh explains why having multiple mentors, like having different coaches for different sports, can help kids thrive. With engaging language and relatable examples, this book inspires readers to seek out those who can help them grow—and to be mentors themselves someday.

THE AUTHOR

Josh Shipp is a renowned speaker, best-selling author, and youth empowerment advocate. A former at-risk foster kid turned success story, he dedicates his work to helping teens overcome challenges and reach their full potential. Josh's personal journey has inspired millions, and his practical advice equips parents, educators, and mentors with tools to make a meaningful impact. His insights have been featured on Oprah, Good Morning America, and in The New York Times.

THE PITCH

- A new hardback edition of this classic Biggles adventure, perfect for collectors
- Our nostalgic covers will target adult readers, encouraging them to re-read the adventure tales they grew up with
- A gripping heist narrative set in the years before WW2

Biggles must thwart the schemes of an international gang of thieves!

Paul Cronfelt, head of a firm of bullion brokers called Cronfelt and Carstairs, has a problem. Shipments of gold and precious stones being ferried between European capitals by aeroplane are being lost, the planes either crashing in mysterious circumstances or else landing without the valuables they set off with.

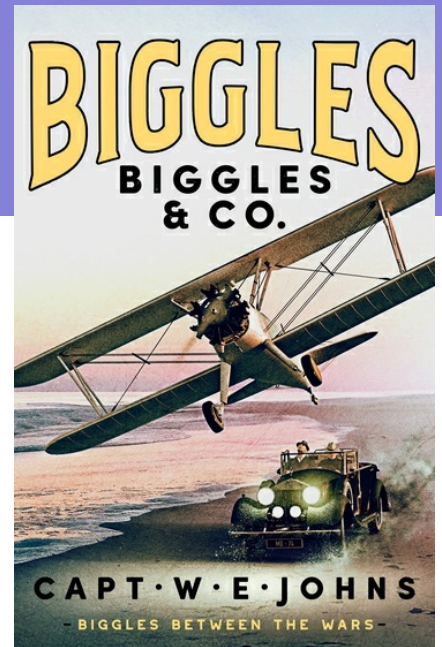

The situation cannot be allowed to continue, and he needs a brave, daring pilot who can find out what is happening and put a stop to it, once and for all. He needs Biggles, and asks him to set up a new airline to transport the valuable cargo.

Biggles is reluctant to take on the enterprise. Until, that is, he receives a mysterious telephone call from Germany, warning him off Together with Algy, Ginger and Smyth, Biggles & Co. is born!

THE AUTHOR

William Earl Johns was an English adventure writer, best known as the creator of the beloved Biggles stories, which drew on his experience as a pilot in the First World War. After his flying career with the RAF, Johns became a newspaper air correspondent, an occupation he combined with editing and illustrating books about flying. He wrote over 160 books, including nearly 100 Biggles titles.

A mysterious black aeroplane and a dastardly plot.

Forced down by thick fog, Biggles and Algy cut short a pleasure flight and land on a river in Norfolk to wait out the weather. Exploring the banks, they stumble across a wartime pillbox with papers written in German hidden inside! Shortly afterwards, a massive plane painted black to camouflage it against the night sky sets down on the water with a roar.

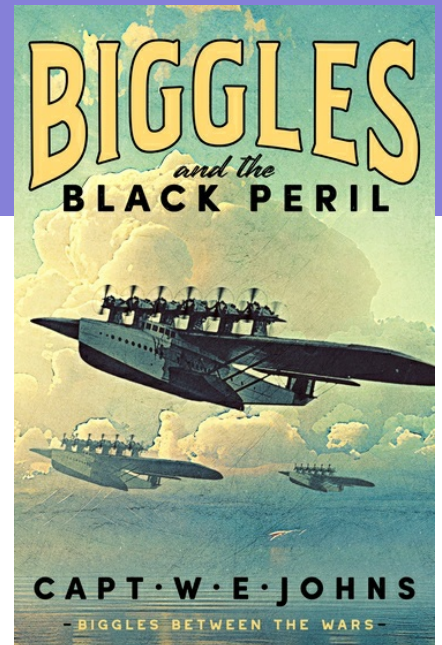

Biggles investigates, boarding the craft to find it is a bomber of immense proportions. He quickly finds himself in trouble when, becoming trapped inside one of the plane's compartments, he feels it take off with him still inside!

Who is the mysterious 'Blackbeard'? And why is he making secretive landings on the English coast? Biggles and Algy and introducing 'Ginger' Hebblethwaite for the first time must find out

Britain is under threat, and our heroes will answer her call.

Biggles Fails to Return

Captain W. E. Johns

THE PITCH

- An emotional Biggles WW2 story. When Biggles fails to return from a daring mission, he is presumed dead. But his friends Algy, Ginger and Bertie refuse to believe that, and set out to find him
- Possibly the strongest cover of the series, this jacket is instantly understood and emotionally engaged with
- One of the final Biggles adventures set in WW2

THE BOOK

Is this the end of Captain James Bigglesworth?

Biggles is missing. Fearing that this may be the result of a failed mission, Algy, Ginger and Bertie demand answers from Air Commodore Raymond.

Raymond informs them that Biggles' last known whereabouts were in Monaco, on a solo mission to rescue an Italian princess. Whilst protecting the princess as she boarded a plane, Biggles was shot. He hasn't been heard from since, and is believed dead.

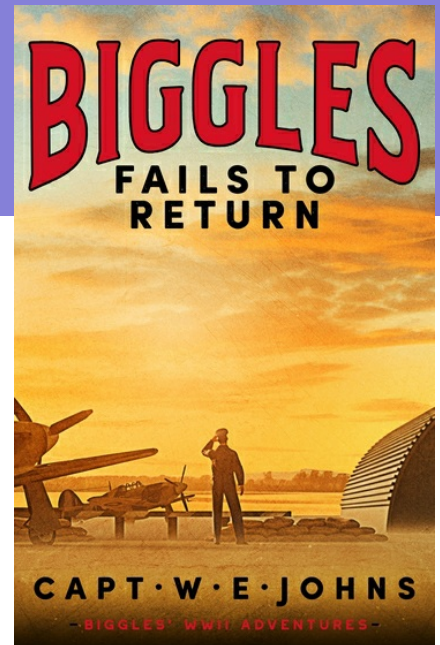

With Raymond's permission, Algy, Bertie and Ginger set off in search of Biggles, determined to find him. The three friends parachute into southern France and then split up, each covering different ground in their individual searches across Europe.

Without their leader, can Algy, Ginger and Bertie successfully complete their mission? And even if they find him, is Biggles still alive?

A desperate quest for a fallen friend across wartime Europe.

The Residency

A gothic suspense novel set on a remote Scottish island that will keep you up all night

C. D. Major

THE PITCH

- In the vein of The Blue Pool by Paula Hawkins and The Silent Companions by Laura Purcell, this is a vivid contemporary gothic horror tale set on an isolated Scottish island
- CD Major's books have sold over nearly 100,000 copies, and her novel Maybe Next Time writing as Cesca Major was a Reese's Book Club pick and has been optioned by Hello, Sunshine production company
- The author is well connected and adept at promoting her titles, with a wide network of authors and influencers ready to throw their support behind her novels

THE BOOK

The opportunity of a lifetime, or the worst mistake of your life?

Life in London is hard for Ginny as a single mother barely scraping by. Once she was a promising artist with a glittering future ahead. On a whim, she applies for an artist's residency – all expenses paid – and is astonished to be accepted.

Soon, Ginny is on a boat to a remote Scottish island, her daughter by her side. But was she too hasty, attracted by the promise of security and a chance to make art again? Locals she meets are tightlipped about the man who is Ginny's benefactor, but she senses underlying fear. Her contract contains odd rules about avoiding the gallery at the vast property where she is living, and there is an undeniable eeriness to the place. If she didn't know better, she'd swear she could hear whispers, and that the people in the paintings were changing overnight...

By the time Ginny realises what a grave mistake she has made, she is stranded. Accepting the invitation has sealed her fate and the only way to survive is through escape – or sacrifice.

An atmospheric gothic suspense novel to send a chill down your spine and keep you reading late into the night.

Praise for The Residency

'Skin crawlingly good. I was screaming at the page as the boat approached the island. C.D. Major has written a belter. Claustrophobic, isolated, unnerving ... I was on edge from the first page. Loved it.' Rachel Wolf

'An unsettling, atmospheric mystery you'll race through right to the chilling supernatural twist. Loved it!' Elery Lloyd, NYT Bestselling author of *The Club

'Atmospheric, compelling, genuinely chilling. The only thing that stopped me staying up all night to finish was being too scared to read it in the dark!' Tammy Cohen

QUOTES

'A deliciously sinister and wonderfully atmospheric thriller. The Residency is filled with eerie suspense and terrific characters, with an artfully crafted mystery at its centre. I loved it.' B. P. Walters

'An unsettling portrait of a wild Scottish island controlled by a malevolent benefactor. Struggling artist Ginny is hoping for a chance to get back on her feet but in the large old house on Stark Island things move and whisper in the night, the inhabitants are worryingly withdrawn and there is no way to leave. A tantalising blend of gothic suspense and feminine power, The Residency will keep you up at night, clutching the covers and turning the pages with desperate fingers. Deeply disturbing and utterly compelling.' Heather Critchlow

'A creeping sense of unease builds to some genuinely terrifying moments in this unsettling and chilling tale. Beautifully written and steeped in atmosphere, this is a must-read for fans of modern gothic horror.' Lisa Gray

'Ginny's eager for a new start when acclaimed painter, Sir Philip Eastwick-Lang, offers her a residency on the idyllic Scottish island of Stark. But she soon finds herself in a waking nightmare, controlled by dark forces, driven by misogyny and spite. Macabre and unsettling, The Residency is a gothic delight.' Olivia Issac Henry

City of Traitors

The tense World War 2 espionage mole hunt thriller from “One of the superstars of modern spy fiction”
Daily Express

Alex Gerlis

Third novel in the TRAITORS tetralogy, a mole hunt within MI6 takes place amid the collapse of Berlin in World War 2, and the overtures of the Cold War

THE PITCH

- WELL-RESPECTED ESPIONAGE AUTHOR: The third novel in a thrilling new quartet from veteran espionage author Alex Gerlis showcases his unparalleled ability to manage tension, atmosphere and intrigue
- AN ACCLAIMED SERIES: The first novel was praised by Paul Vidich ('Compelling'), I.S. Berry ('One of the best spy novels I've read'), and the Daily Express ('One of the superstars of modern spy fiction')
- A UNIQUE PERSPECTIVE: The series will ultimately cover a dramatic twenty-year period, from the stuttering tumble into war in the late 1930s, to the freezing of relations that heralded the Cold War

THE BOOK

As the end of the Second World War in Europe looms, a new conflict is in its early stages: who will control Europe when the war ends?

Soviet double-agent 'Archie' is now a British diplomat in the United States, feeding information on the Special Relationship back to Moscow Centre. Meanwhile, erstwhile Soviet agent 'Bertie' – Charles Cooper – is sent on a perilous mission to Italy before being drawn towards Berlin as the Allies draw near their goal.

As the Red Army draws in on Berlin from the east, the British and Americans from the West, the heart of the Reich trembles beneath bombardment and the pitiless tracks of tanks. The stage is set for a climactic showdown, and the traitors become more central than ever...

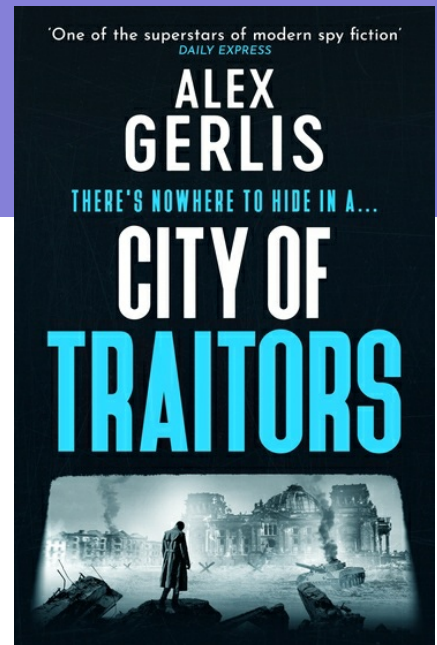

The gripping third novel in Alex Gerlis' epic Double Agents series.

THE AUTHOR

Alex Gerlis was a BBC journalist for nearly thirty years and is the author of fourteen Second World War espionage thrillers, all published by Canelo.

His first four novels are in the acclaimed Spy Masters series, including the best-selling The Best of Our Spies which is currently being developed as a television series. Prince of Spies was published in March 2020 and was followed by three more in the Prince series. The Wolf Pack novels, which began with Agent in Berlin, first published in November 2021. His most recent series is the Double Agent series, beginning with Every Spy a Traitor.

Alex was born in Lincolnshire and now lives in west London with his wife and two black cats, a breed which makes cameo appearances in all his books. Alex has two daughters and two grandsons and supports Grimsby Town, which he believes helps him cope with the highs and especially the lows of writing a

Templar Assassin

Angus Donald

THE PITCH

- Second in an exciting new trilogy, inspired by true events.
- An compelling topic, not attempted since Conn Iggulden's Wolf of the Plain series
- Angus Donald is the bestselling author of the Outlaw Chronicles and the Fire Born saga (Canelo), which has sold 60k+ units across all formats

THE BOOK

The Templar knight who turned assassin...

September 1241. Robert of Hadlow, Templar knight, is on trial for his life.

Twenty years ago, his accusers say, he turned his back on his Brethren to join the army of the most bloodthirsty warlord the world has ever known – Genghis Khan.

Robert claims he was on a secret mission to bring the Mongol hordes to the defence of the Holy Land to aid its beleaguered Christian knights. But will he be believed? Or will Robert be condemned to a traitor's death – and bring the entire Templar Order to ruin?

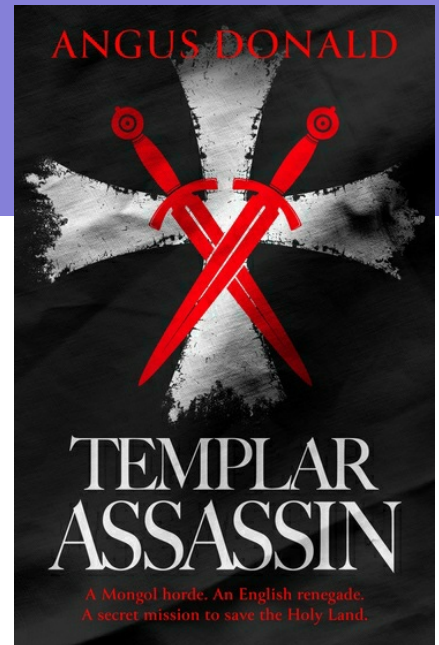

From the endless grasslands of the Eurasian steppe to the burning sands of the Gobi and beyond, Robert recounts his extraordinary adventures with the Mongol army.

A tale of love and loss, tragedy and high adventure, of silent killing and the slaughter of thousands. And what a man will sacrifice to survive, serve his cause and save his family.

The compelling second novel in Angus Donald's blockbuster new series, inspired by a true story.

THE AUTHOR

Angus Donald is the author of the bestselling Outlaw Chronicles, a series of ten novels set in the 12th/13th centuries and featuring a gangster-ish Robin Hood. Angus has also published the Holcroft Blood trilogy about a mildly autistic 17th-century English artillery officer, son of notorious Crown Jewels thief Colonel Thomas Blood. Before becoming an author, Angus worked as a fruit-picker in Greece, a waiter in New York City and as an anthropologist studying magic and witchcraft in Indonesia. For fifteen years he was a journalist working in Hong Kong, India, Afghanistan and London. He now writes full time from a medieval farmhouse in Kent. A cosy Christmas murder mystery perfect to curl up with

Hannah Hendy

A rollicking seasonal instalment from cosy crime's best-loved dinner ladies.

THE PITCH

- Sales success: Hannah Hendy's novels have sold more than 320,000 copies to date, and become a fan favourite in the competitive cosy crime space. They have been on retailer shelves across the country. More books are planned for the series.
- British charm and local flavour: The fictional world of Dewstow, and its inhabitants, are described with flair and quintessential charm that brings the characters to life. This vivid and colourful aspect brings readers back to the series time and again.
- Author engagement: In the past year, Hannah Hendy has been invited to take part in major fiction events including Crime Cymru, Brighton Book Festival and Theakston Old Peculier Crime Writing Festival.

THE BOOK

Festive joy and goodwill to all abounds, unless you're arch enemies...
'At the top of the tree of modern whodunnits' Ian Moore

As Christmas approaches, Margery and her team of dinner ladies are asked to cater for the popular Ittonvale Winter Festival. However, the event is thrown into jeopardy by a wild storm – and a sinister turn of events.

Food vendor Elliot is found unconscious, with a severe head injury, lying among toppled Christmas decorations. There are rumours of an argument with a rival stall owner the previous night. Could foul play be involved?

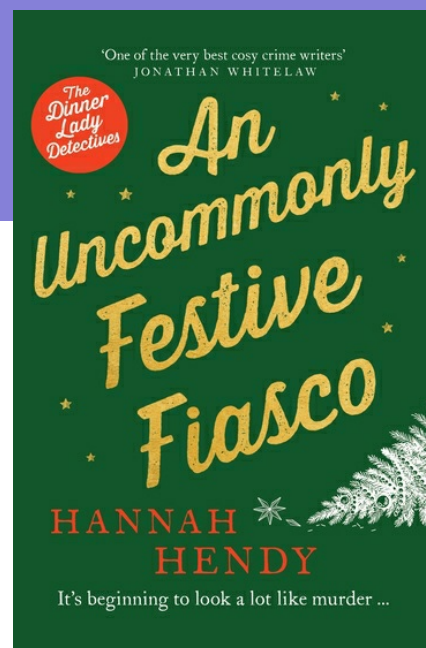

The police can't reach the site until the weather changes, so Margery and Clementine are vigilant on the look out for suspicious behaviour. If their instincts are right, it means all attendees are trapped – including a possible attacker.

As the duo get closer to the truth, they uncover a web of jealousy, competition and long held grudges. They must solve the case quickly, and before mayhem turns to murder...

A delightfully cosy Christmas crime novel perfect for reading in front of the fire. For fans of Ian Moore, Fiona Leitch and Richard Coles.

Unseen

An atmospheric Scottish mystery novel about a true crime podcaster

Heather Critchlow

THE PITCH

- Unknown was shortlisted for the McIllvanney Prize and Unsolved was shortlisted for the Bloody Scotland Debut Prize
- Heather Critchlow is a well-connected author and regularly attends events such as Theakstons Old Peculier Crime Writing Festival and Bloody Scotland
- Heather grew up in Scotland. Her knowledge of the area shines through in each book and she often scouts locations while on holiday in the Highlands

THE BOOK

Can a true crime podcaster track down a killer hiding in plain sight?

Bella Davies is cooking dinner for her family when she hears a voice she hasn't heard in a long time. She collapses in shock. The man being interviewed on the television murdered her mother and sisters.

The crime shocked the nation thirty-seven years ago. Back then, a man confessed and pleaded guilty to the crime, leaving Bella and her father to move on with their lives as best they could. But now Bella knows: they got the wrong guy.

Podcaster Cal Lovett is trying to move on from his own demons, putting the past behind him and focusing on building a new life. But then Bella shows up on his doorstep and he knows he can never truly move on...

A dark and thrilling crime fiction novel set in Scotland. Perfect for fans of Jane Casey, Claire Douglas and Neil Lancaster.

Praise for Unseen

- 'A very satisfying conclusion to Cal's story.' NJ Mackay
'Vivid, taut, evocative and powerful. Justice has many faces, and this book doesn't shy away from exploring a variety. A triumph.' Rachel Wolf
'Skilful and compelling, I've enjoyed every instalment of Cal's adventures through an immersive Highlands landscape. A crime series to savour.' Jo Furniss
